OPPORTUNITIES PACKAGE

Dear Collaborators and Industry Partners,

It is our pleasure to invite you to support our next meeting, which will be held in Louisville from October 17 - 19, 2019. This will be the 11th Bi-Ennial Meeting of the Cognitive Development Society. Our meeting will provide you with great opportunities to showcase your products and interact with many researchers and clients.

Of the growing number of researchers who attend our meeting – we expect approximately 800 - 900 attendees – many will be interested in discovering the products you have to offer. Our attendees cover a wide range of scholars, practitioners and others who are interested in change and continuity in the intellectual processes that support mental life. Some of the attendees are concerned with basic research or theory; others focus on policy issues and practical applications. These studies require many advanced tools and equipment that companies like yours provide.

Our conference will be held at the Galt House Hotel in Louisville, KY, a modern, state-of-the-art hotel located in the center of the metro area.

Advertise in our conference program, be an exhibitor and display your product, or sponsor a portion of the conference and receive extended exposure to the 800+ group of assembled Cognitive Development specialists! Full details can be found in this package.

Your presence at our meeting is a much appreciated demonstration of your support for the Cognitive Development Society.

Sincerely,
Paul Harris

President of the Cognitive Development Society

What is the 11th CDS Meeting?

The 11th Cognitive Development Society Meeting brings together researchers and scientists from the many disciplines comprising the world of Cognitive Development. The conference serves as an important event for discussion and exchange of the most cutting edge knowledge, insights, issues and ideas in our field.

The first Cognitive Development Society Meeting was in Chapel Hill, North Carolina in 1999. The conference has continued to grow and move throughout the US. The 10th Bi-Ennial Meeting in Portland, OR attracted over 800 delegates.

Who is organizing the conference?

The 11th Cognitive Development Society Meeting is being organized under the leadership of the CDS President Paul Harris (Harvard Graduate School of Education) with support from the Board of Directors and the Program Committee.

The Program Committee is led by Co-Chairs David Sobel (Brown University) and Andrei Cimpian (New York University).

The overall conference planning process is organized by CDS and the team at Podium Conference Specialists.

Who attends the conference?

The conference draws principal investigators, post-doctoral fellows and grad students actively engaged in cognitive development studies. Although most delegates are based in the United States, a growing number of conference attendees are from other countries and regions such as Canada, Europe, Australia and Asia.

Past conferences drew scientists, postdoctoral fellows and students along with industry and governmental representatives.
